About The Band

Electric City Pulse (ECP) is a funk, R&B and rock band based in the Electric City — Peterborough, Ontario, Canada. They cover an eclectic mix of high-energy, fun tunes that get audiences smiling, dancing and having a great time. They may not take themselves too seriously, but they are serious musicians. Several band members play multiple instruments on the same songs, producing a big sound for a six-member group. ECP launched with their first show in June 2024 and now plays regularly in the Peterborough area and beyond.

What Audiences are Saying

These folks were absolutely awesome! I am all about danceability and this band beat all my expectations ! Their music choice is so unique and eclectic but also incredibly full of energy and enthusiastic beat. They also have a unique and rare form of audience engagement as well which I feel is at the heart of a great evening of entertainment and pure fun! Thanks very much for driving all this way to make this such a memorable evening for us! Hope to see you guys again soon in Ottawa.

I still haven't fully recovered !!! BEST. NIGHT. EVER !!!!

- Rob

Electric City Pulse put on an amazing St Patrick's Day show at the Whitby Curling Club! Everyone was up dancing! So many great songs and they even added some St Patrick's Day themed tunes for the occasion. Can't wait for the next show! ECP Rocks!

- Pam

We had such a fun afternoon singing along. You guys are amazing. Please come back to the Ganny!
